PRESS

KQED (Ted Goldberg) [Received 9/7] – CLOSED -- Reporter had previously requested a copy of Valero's response to EPA's recent information request. I had told him that EPA was reviewing Valero's claim of the response being business confidential, and that portions not subject to withholding could be shared once the review is complete, which can be expected to take at least several weeks. Reporter is now asking when he should check back on status of request. I reiterated that there is no set time frame for the review process but he can check in as needed. SF, ORC, Michele Huitric

AP Reno (Scott Sonner) [Received 9/6] –CLOSED – Reporter sought additional comment regarding Anaconda deferral request. Reporter ran story today indicating the EPA acknowledged receipt of the deferral request.

Wednesday, September 13, 2017 - EPA to Meet with Local California

Irrigation Districts: On Wednesday, September 13th, representatives of the Turlock and Modesto Irrigation Districts, and the San Francisco Public Utility Commission (SFPUC), will meet with EPA to discuss the relicensing of the Don Pedro Hydroelectric Project. The two Irrigation Districts hold the federal license for the project, whose operations directly affect SFPUC water and power facilities on the Tuolumne River. The Districts (public agencies) will submit a final revised relicensing application to FERC in September. The Districts and the SFPUC officials will discuss their views on the use of water temperature models that are more appropriate to conditions in Central California than the older EPA model currently being used by the National Marine Fisheries Service (NMFS) in studies related to the development of mandatory licensing conditions for the Don Pedro Project. Staff from the Office of Water, Office of Science and Technology, and Region IX will join OIR for the meeting. OCIR Contact: M. Arnita Hannon Christmon
